LIFELONG LEARNING SKILL

Take Responsibility for Learning

In order to fulfill responsibilities as parents/family members, citizens/community members, and workers, adults must be able to:

- Establish learning goals that are based on an understanding of one’s own current and future learning needs.
- Identify own strengths and weaknesses as a learner and seek out opportunities for learning that help build self-concept as a learner.
- Become familiar with a range of learning strategies to acquire or retain knowledge.
- Identify and use strategies appropriate to goals, task, context, and the resources available for learning.
- Monitor progress toward goals and modify strategies or other features of the learning situation as necessary to achieve goals.
- Test out new learning in real-life applications.
